

Grandma

Florine Elizabeth Edwards

*I dreamed I went to heaven
Found Grandma standing there
Right beside the pearly gates,
Beneath the golden stair.*

*Her injuries had vanished
And every illness too,
She smiled with a rad'ance,
That none had ever knew.*

*The angels gathered 'round her,
And led her deep inside.
They beckoned me to follow,
My awe I tried to hide.*

*As one by one they traveled,
Stretched far beyond the sea,
Each of their lives touched,
By her love and honesty.*

*The things she'd done for others
Both unseen and unknown,
Were now laid bare before her,
The seeds that she had sown.*

*Each one came and kissed her cheek,
Then shook her hand and said,
"Thank you for the love you showed.
You changed my life of dread."*

*She wiped the tears back from her eyes,
And whispered her reply.
"I'm glad to help in any way.
I always had to try."*

*Then the angels led me off,
Back from whence I came.
"Now it's time for you to go,
And try to live the same."*
