

I WISH

I wish that I could take them back
The words I spoke when wisdom lacked
I wish that I could turn back time
To be more caring; Be more kind.

I wish I was a better friend
The good advice that I could lend
Would always help, would never fail
Would never let them helplessly flail

I wish that God would grant me this,
My single hope; this one request.
To be a friend to those in need,
To show my love through word and deed.

Forgive me for my failures past,
To be your friend is all I ask.
To give advice and lend an ear,
Erase your doubts and calm your fear.

I promise to be there in your need,
Most loyal friend that you have seen.
I promise faithfulness to you,
I'll be your rock, my whole life through.
