

My Prayer

*You said that you would be there,
To wipe away my tears.
You said that you would be there,
Not burden me with fears.
I need your touch right now.*

*You said that you would hold me,
When wild tempests blew.
You said that you would hold me,
Not push me far from you.
I need your warmth right now.*

*You said that you would love me,
Despite my wrongs in life.
You said that you would love me,
Not weigh me down with strife.
I need your love right now.*

*You said that you would bless me,
In both my word and deed.
You said that you would bless me,
Not take away my seed.
I need your blessings now.*

*You said that you'd protect me,
Give meaning to my life.
You said that you'd protect me,
Not fill my days with strife.
I need protection now.*

*So much has happened to me,
You know that all too well.
So much has happened to me,
Life's been a living Hell.
I need your help right now.*

*No matter what may happen,
In good times or in bad.
I'll put my faith in you, Lord,
Not wish I always had.
You have my life right now.*
