

PRECIOUS CHILD

*Oh precious child, so frail and small,
I will protect you most of all.
Tucked deep within that secret place,
I can not wait to see your face.
You are my precious child.*

*To see you laugh and hear your cries,
I'll comfort you and dry your eyes.
To feel your touch against my arm,
Please know I'll keep you from all harm.
You are my precious child.*

*With pale blue eyes and golden hair,
You'll join this world without a care,
But know that you will be alright,
'cause I'll protect you day and night.
You are my precious child.*

*Dear Lord, watch o'er this growing child,
This wondrous gift so meek and mild;
And let it grow so big and strong,
To you, O Lord, all praise belong.
Please bless our precious child.*

*So give us now, our daily bread,
That we may walk the path you've tread.
Watch o'er our child, both day and night,
Protect it Lord, please, by your might.
Please bless our precious child.*

*I love this child sent down from Heav'n,
This perfect gift that you have giv'n.
So fill this life with your pure love,
Watch o'er it, Lord, from Heav'n above.
Please bless our precious child.*
