

TRUE LOVE

Dawn Marie Edwards

*Lying here beside you;
In the dark, I hear you breathe.
Feeling you so close beside me;
Closer than I could believe.*

*Wrapped in your embrace,
There's nowhere else I'd rather be
The pleasant smile upon on your face
You're so beautiful to me.*

*Slowly try to catch my breath.
Pull you closer, hold you tight.
Never knowing love like this
Love so perfect, Love so right.*

*With you, I could do anything,
And this is true, I know,
For you I would do anything
But ever let you go.*

*And cradled in your arms tonight;
I know, I never knew,
That True Love really could be right,
'Til I fell in love with you...*
